10 September 2018

Dear Families and Carers

We are delighted to announce that Bickley Primary has joined the family of Nexus education Schools Trust group of school as of the 1 September 2018.

There are still a few land issues to complete before formal completion, but these are in the last stages of finalisation and do not inhibit Bickley from being a full member of the NEST Trust organisation.

Bickley Primary school has joined the nine NEST Bromley primary schools, creating the largest Bromley based, primary multi academy trust; which values exceptional and distinctive learning communities.

These include:-

Alexandra Infant School
Farnborough Primary School
Highfield Junior School
Perry Hall Primary School

Alexandra Junior School
Highfield Infants' School
Manor Oak Primary School
Worsley Bridge Primary School

The Trust will also welcome Balgowan Primary School, Beckenham, as the eleventh school in Autumn 2018. Our family of primary schools work collaboratively to provide the widest opportunities for all children.

All the schools are committed to, and have a proven track record of, rigorous school improvement where Headteachers and other leaders work together to share best practice and learn from one another as well as from other external networks and partnerships.

Nexus Education Schools Trust values the diversity and ethos of each school. Each school is led by an outstanding Headteachers and the Trust aims to insure our family of schools benefit from the economies of scale, collaboration, challenge and the widest opportunities for all our children and staff. The school are adventurous and innovative, sharing a range of creative curriculum events such as musical, drama and sporting occasions to give the children in each schools the opportunity to feel part of the larger family of NEST schools.

The Trust is ambitious for its schools and communities and values the importance of having talented teams of staff within the Trust. In working together and contributing both expertise and innovative ideas, staff will enjoy opportunities to flourish professionally in our schools supporting NEST's growth and development.

NEST promises to keep the children at the centre of all that it does, and all that we do is for their education, their achievements and their future. Bickley Primary and NEST look forward to the exciting journey ahead.

Kind Regards
